Briotix Health Joins with ErgoPlus to Elevate Service and Expand Client Reach

An opportunity to enhance our solutions to clients and the marketplace

CENTENNIAL, CO – October 31, 2023

The Briotix Health management team is pleased to announce the merger agreement with Ergonomics Plus, Inc. (dba ErgoPlus) For three decades, ErgoPlus has been a trusted partner for companies of all sizes, offering top-tier injury prevention solutions and cutting-edge software to promote the creation of safer, healthier, and more productive work environments. ErgoPlus offers a range of services, including ErgoLaunch, ErgoBlitz, and ErgoPlus Industrial software, each designed to meet the unique needs of their diverse clientele.

“The merger between ErgoPlus and Briotix Health is built upon a strong strategic fit,” noted Stephen Brown, CEO of Briotix Health. “By combining our ergonomic software expertise with diverse client portfolios across industries, we are well-positioned to advance occupational injury prevention and wellness while delivering exceptional benefits to both our current and future clients.”

“We are very pleased to be joining efforts with the Briotix Health team to continue our mission of improving the lives of workplace athletes,” said Mark Middlesworth, Founder of ErgoPlus. “This partnership promises to redefine how ergonomic technology and injury prevention services seamlessly converge to meet the evolving needs of our current and future clients. Together, we will ensure the delivery of unparalleled solutions while driving innovation in workplace musculoskeletal care.”

This merger solidifies our commitment to preserving the exceptional service our clients have come to rely on, with the same dedicated individuals who have consistently earned their confidence and trust. As we move forward, the integration of our companies will empower us with expanded resources, reinforcing our position as industry leaders. This merger paves the way for sustained, long-term growth with enhanced opportunities for our clients and team members.
